WELCOME TO LISBON!

It is the third time that Portugal has the honor to welcome the FISEC Games. Lisbon in 1999, the Algarve in 2009 and here we are again in Lisbon waiting for the magnificent athletes who will participate in FISEC 63rd Games representing the school sport pride of their own countries.

Together we will try to get the best marks, to achieve the best performances in a spirit of joy and good effort.

We would like you to experience the best sportive moments, in the mood of the Portuguese hospitality worldwide recognized.

The current year is the International Year for the Youth celebration.

Let´s celebrate it!

Lisbon is an ancient city full of history and cultural traditions where magnificent palaces, monuments, churches and museums are testimonies of a great cultural and historical heritage. Bordered by one of Europe's widest rivers, the Iberian Tagus, the city spreads itself across the slopes of seven hills going with the flow of its river down to the Atlantic Ocean.

Lisbon has the mildest climate in Europe and is blessed with the cool Atlantic breeze.

Lisbon skyline and its light are considered very special and its luminosity is praised even among the most Southern European cities. Lisbon due to its cultural diversity has always been like a mosaic as a result of the crossing between the Atlantic and the Mediterranean peoples, habits and cultures.

However its traditional soul, Lisbon city offers also modern areas full of innovation, which gives the feeling of visiting one of the most enjoyable cities in Europe.

Right at its heart, down town area, there are wide, tree-lined avenues graced by the art nouveau buildings, and the visitors can appreciate the "calçada portuguesa" - the traditional black and white stone mosaic pavements while enjoying the sun and the atmosphere in the outdoors of the cafes.

The sight from the river - one of the city's many great viewpoints - Lisbon resembles an impressionist picture in its ochre and pastel colors, punctuated by the white of the houses crawling up the hills, magnificent buildings, church towers and domes.

Accordingly to the legend, Lisbon was founded by Ulysses' name therefore "Olissipo". And that is the origin for the current Lisboa, which means "enchanted port".
